Frontières International Co-Production Market has unveiled the full line-up for its third European edition.

Taking place at the Brussels International Fantastic Film Festival (BIFFF) from March 30-April 1, Frontières will showcase 20 projects from the likes of Belgium, Canada, the Netherlands, Turkey and the UK.

A total of 20 projects were selected from a record number of submissions new projects from Baskin's Can Evrenol, Doc Of The Dead's Alexandre Philippe, Go Down Death's Aaron Schimberg and I Sell The Dead's Glenn McQuaid.

Giles Daoust (Starry Eyes), Amy Darling (Violent), François Cognard (The Strange Color Of Your Body's Tears) and Glass Eye Pix's Larry Fessenden and Peter Phok are among the producers showcasing new projects in Brussels.

Frontières has also picked Amanda Kramer's Drain You, executive produced by the Poltergeist remake director Gil Kenan.

Lindsay Peters, market & industry director at Fantasia International Film Festival, told Screen: "We are absolutely thrilled with the quality of this year's line-up for Brussels. It's quite clear that genre film is only continuing to thrive. Not only did we receive a record number of submissions, but the level of ambition of this edition's projects is going to make for a very exciting year."

Established in 2012 by the Fantasia International Film Festival, Frontières has developed into a biannual transatlantic circuit between Montreal and Brussels. It is a collaborative initiative between Fantasia, BIFFF and Vision-in-Motion.

Frontières is supported by Creative Europe, la Région de Bruxelles Capitale, Visit Brussels, Telefilm Canada and SODEC.
